ADOLPHE is a short novel (really a novella), the only literary production of Benjamin Constant but one of the most important novels in French history. You could consider it Proust in miniature for its startlingly acute analysis of the psychology of love, indifference, and despair, all of which preoccupied Proust at major length.

Adolphe (2002) - IMDb

Adolphe is a classic French novel by Benjamin Constant, first published in 1816. It tells the story of an alienated young man, Adolphe, who falls in love with an older woman, Ellénore, the Polish mistress of the Comte de P. Their illicit relationship serves to isolate them from their friends and from society at large. The book eschews all conventional descriptions of exteriors for the sake of detailed accounts of feelings and states of mind.
