Pakistan occupies a paradoxical, even contradictory place in American foreign policy. Nominally a strategic ally in the war on terror, it is the third-largest recipient of US aid in the world. At the same time, it is run by its military and intelligence service—whose goals certainly do not always overlap with US priorities.

This realization has been the dominant thought within the military in Pakistan. In Military Inc., Pakistani strategic analyst Dr. Ayesha Siddiqa makes an elaborate study of Milbus, a concept she defines as the "military capital that is used for the personal benefit of the military fraternity but is neither recorded nor part of the defence budget" - an economy based on the Pakistani military's booming commercial enterprise. Dr.
