Yesterday my drawing group had a new model he had never posed nude before. He acted very nervous and maybe a little scared. I think he thought he would be posing for just one artist not six. Anyway after a few minutes he got an erection. I asked if he was ok or if he wanted to take a break to calm down. He asked what we wanted him to do one of the other women said she would prefer him to hold ...

Posing Techniques for Photographing Model Portfolios

Posing as a model in front of a camera is an art unto itself. The objective may seem simple, but in reality, it's more complicated than you may realize. In model photography, you must translate a three-dimensional object, your body, into the two-dimensional space of a flat image. This translation is where many portraits may, well, fall flat.
