#1: Facebook Facebook is currently the largest social media site in the world. With 2.6 billion monthly active users as of 2020, it's safe to say that nearly every social media user is on Facebook. So it's an excellent platform for brands to market their products to a huge audience.

Editorial: the impact of social media | PRIME Journal

A 2016 study of more than 450 teens found that greater social media use, nighttime social media use and emotional investment in social media — such as feeling upset when prevented from logging on — were each linked with worse sleep quality and higher levels of anxiety and depression. How teens use social media also might determine its impact.
